4-8-1: PURPOSE: Residents of City of Idaho Falls have a substantial interest in protecting their personal safety, well-being and privacy, as well as the right to provide or receive information regarding matters of personal belief, political or charitable activities and goods and services lawfully in commerce. The City has a substantial interest in protecting the well-being, tranquility, personal safety and privacy of its residents, which includes the ability to protect citizens from unwanted intrusions upon residential property. The City also has a substantial interest in protecting residents from fraud or otherwise unfair consumer sales practices and criminal activity. The City recognizes that the substantial interests listed above must be balanced against the rights of those who are regulated by this Chapter. Based on the collective experiences of City elected officials derived from regulating business activity, protecting persons and property from criminal conduct, responding to citizen inquiries regarding door-to-door solicitation, the experience of law enforcement officers and those affected by door-to-door canvassing and solicitation, as well as judicial decisions outlining the boundaries of Constitutional protections afforded to persons seeking to engage in door-to-door solicitation, the City adopts this Chapter to promote such interests.
