For Immediate Release:

Idaho Falls Police arrested a man Sunday night for possession of methamphetamine during a search for an alleged burglar.

According to a police report, Brian Jester, 21, of Idaho Falls was stopped near the intersection of Yellowstone Avenue and E Street for questioning. Jester matched the description of a man believed to be involved in a reported burglary in the 600 block of John Adams.

Officers determined he was not the burglary suspect, but had an outstanding arrest warrant for Jester.

While being booked into the Bonneville County Jail for the warrant a bag of methamphetamine was found in his hat.
