I.F. Couple Arrested for Possession of Stolen Property

Idaho Falls Police arrested two people Wednesday morning for possession of a stolen vehicle after they were caught selling a stolen van.

Cristy Rose Apolinar, 27, and Todd B. Weaver, 28, both of Idaho Falls, were arrested at their residence and booked into the Bonneville County Jail.

According to reports, police began investigating stolen 1992 Plymouth Voyager, worth about $600, from the 400 block of Gladstone on Aug. 17. The investigation revealed that Apolinar and Weaver took the van and sold it to a local wrecking yard.

Warrants were issued for the arrest of Apolinar and Weaver.
