

IDAHO FALLS HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION

Special Meeting, April 10, 2009

Noon

Planning and Building Division Director's Office
City Hall Annex Building

Attending: Roxane Mitro, Chair; Graham Whipple; Julie Braun; Hereschell Mynarcik; Brenda Ring-Pace; Shirley Chastain; Nancy Boland. Renee Magee, staff.

Mynarcik explained O. E. Bell will be open at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 16, 2009. There will be vintage cars in the parking lot of O. E. Bell and displays in the lobby. There will be an article in the Crow Creek Connection. A porta-potty will be available in Kate Curley Park. Three homes will be on the tour as well as the Trinity Methodist Church. Volunteers in the homes have been handled. He would like to appear on the early morning shows on Channel 3 and 8.

Chastain can have greeting cards made from the painting of the G. G. Wright home by Marjorie Clearwater. The proceeds from the cards will be donated to the historic foundation for plaques downtown.

The Commission decided to table the item on zoning in historic neighborhoods until Stephanie Rose is able to attend. The Commission will meet at 5:00 p.m on April 30 to discuss the application of Great Harvest and Janet Jackson, Antique Gallery building, for facade grants.

The Commission members left the office and toured the lettered streets in two vehicles to assess the potential for a National Register historic district. The Commission returned at approximately 2:00 p.m. and, after deciding to map the 1990 reconnaissance survey on a map of the numbered streets for continued discussion of a district, adjourned.
