JULY 17, 1942

Idaho Falls, Idaho
July 16, 1942

Honorable E. W. Fanning
Mayor of Idaho Falls
Idaho Falls, Idaho

Dear Mayor Fanning:

I wish to commend to you the work of our Fire Department in extinguishing the fire last evening in Kunter's Store, located in our building.

Their prompt response to the alarm and able judgment, in the use of their equipment extinguished the blaze without serious damage to our building or contents. I wish also to commend their most unusual procedure of cleaning up the premises in a most careful and efficient manner after the fire was extinguished.

In token of our appreciation of their services, I am enclosing our cashier's check in the amount of $25.00 which I will ask that you present to the Department to augment their Firemen's Fund.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Very truly yours
s/ D. F. Richards Pres.
