MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable Mayor and City Council
FROM: Jim Thorsen, Director of Aviation
SUBJECT: LEASE AGREEMENT - MARLAND STANLEY AND HALVOR JOHANSEN

Mr. Stanley and Mr. Johansen have requested that the Lease for their hangar be reduced in size to that ground actually occupied by their hangar. This reduced leasehold will permit the construction of a new hangar closer to the paved taxiway and improve utilization of airport land and facilities. The rental amount remains the same.

The Lease expires in 1999 and will be renegotiated at that time.

The Airport Division requests authorization for the Mayor to execute the Agreement.

s/ James H. Thorsen

It was moved by Councilmember Carlson, seconded by Councilmember Branson, to approve the Lease Agreement with Marland Stanley and Halvor Johansen and, further, give authorization for the Mayor and City Clerk to execute the necessary documents. Roll call as follows:

Councilmember Branson requested the Electric Division Director to come forward and explain what the flood danger is in our community. Mark Gendron, Electric Division Director, explained that as of this date, there is 23,000 to 24,000 c.f.s. (cubic feet per second) running in the river. Mayor Milam stated that Engineering and Electric crews have been out to develop contour lines, that should a flood situation develop, sandbagging could take place in the low lying areas.

Reinita Snyder, 1435 Presto Street, No. 6, North Park Village Condos, appeared to express her concern over the dust and dirt that the unpaved section of street produces, from the Vietnam War Memorial to the south. She requested that section of roadway to be paved. Mrs. Snyder, further, wanted to know who is responsible for the clean-up and repair of Willow Creek. The Parks and Recreation Director stated that the Parks Department has been cleaning out this section of the creek. Mrs. Snyder stated that she has dug up some cement at her residence, and wanted to know if they could put this cement in the creek to shore up some of the erosion that is taking place along Willow Creek. Mayor Milam stated that she would have the Parks and Recreation Director look into both issues discussed. Mrs. Snyder was also concerned with the loud stereos from vehicles in the park. Councilmember Hardcastle stated that the Public Safety Committee is looking into compiling an Ordinance for this purpose.

There being no further business, it was moved by Councilmember Carlson, seconded by Councilmember Hardcastle, that the meeting adjourn at 8:05 p.m.
