

The City of Idaho Falls City Prosecutor's Office Victim's Notification Form

The Idaho Code § 19-5306 provides crime victims with certain rights defined as the following:

- To be treated with fairness, respect, dignity and privacy throughout the criminal justice process.
- To timely disposition of the case.
- To prior notification of trial court, appellate and parole proceedings and, upon request, to information about the sentence, incarceration and release of the defendant.
- To be present at all criminal justice proceedings.
- To communicate with the prosecution and be advised of any proposed plea agreement by the prosecuting attorney prior to entering into a plea agreement in criminal offenses involving crimes of violence, sex crimes or crimes against children.
- To be heard, upon request, at all criminal justice proceedings considering a plea of guilty, sentencing, incarceration or release of the defendant, unless manifest injustice would result.
- To restitution, as provided by law, from the person committing the offense that caused the victim's loss.
- To refuse an interview, ex parte contact, or other request by the defendant, or any other person acting on behalf of the defendant, unless such request is authorized by law.
- To the same rights in juvenile proceedings, where the offense is a felony if committed by an adult, as guaranteed in this section, provided that access to the social history report shall be determined by statute.

(See also Idaho State Constitution, article I, section 22, which grants similar rights.)
